

Leo C2X - Coastal Double

Leo Coastal Rowing Double C2X is a self-bailing boat that gives a great speed, stability and excellent boat feeling which is appreciated by the rowers at different levels.

Leo C2X is designed to optimize speed through the waves and with significant surfing performance with the waves/tail wind sea.

Built to withstand tough waves in the sea but also excellent for rowing in the archipelago or lake. High focus at the design language, body lines. Unique stripe color scheme which is giving a high freedom to design your own colour scheme.

Rowing ergonomics is excellent with high attention for a wonderful rowing feeling.

Conforms with FISA Coastal Rowing Regulations

- Length: 7.5 m
- Beam: 1.0 m
- Weight: 60 kg (Carbon fiber version 54 kg)
- Foldable anodized aluminum riggers, with high Inertia which holding them in place when rowing. Easy to fold in when entering into boat house.
- Brackets for safety 15 m rope in the front.
- 5 places with bungees for storing, clothes and water bottle & life jacket.
- Standard foot stretcher with heel cups and neoprene velcro straps.

Options

- Exclusiv carbon seat with wide holes.
- Rowfit Foot stretcher, angle feet adjustment, easy to take out and of.
- Shoes, Active Tools Shoes or Racing shoes.
- Aramid/kevlar keel strip in front and under front keel is available to protect hull from damages against stones, beach or collision when landing.

Designed and developed in Sweden.
For Coastal Rowers by Coastal Rowers.